The difference in the size of some of the art pages here and in our previous book is because I made a mistake in judging the space requirements.

Adjustments were made in later art pages.

Because of the number of different ideas and features on various themes, not all pages are featured here. For example, so far, there are three more C pages, five additional GN pages and three continuing O pages. All these (and more) will be featured in our next publication.

THE

HERO
